BOUILLON BLOCKS PURCHASE OF MACHINERY

OFFERS FIRE ON COMMISSIONERS CANDY AND AGAR WITH VOL- EY OF TECHNICAL PHRASES

Talks Twenty Minutes On Ancient History

And Demands That So Much Time Has Been Wasted That It Is Now Too Late.

After having spent more than two hours in a discussion of technical points, the commissioners adjourned at 12:30 today without having reached a decision regarding the purchase of additional machinery for the city power plant. An adjourned meeting will be held this afternoon, when the question will be further discussed, and there is a bare possibility that the contract will be awarded at this meeting.

Commissioner Bouillon, at the very outset, opened fire with a list of technical questions. He applied his remarks directly to Aldermen Asar and Alderman Gandy in the majority of the discussion and seemed seriously to propound some point which the other commissioners admitted they were not qualified to answer.

In bringing his report to the attention of the commissioners, Superintendent Hoffman, of the city power plant, recommended that the machinery securing the contract be required to put up a guarantee for the date of operation of the machinery, as well as a guarantee that the machinery would be as efficient as is claimed for it by the company's representative. The difference between present action to execute a date of operation, it being understood that they were not responsible if the machinery failed to live up to the specifications. They were also willing to enter into an agreement which would protect the city if their machines were not as efficient as is claimed for them.

The dates of delivery range from ninety days to eight months and the first point that Commissioner Bouillon dealt on was that any one of the dates mentioned was too long. It would not benefit the city to install machines three months from today. The machine, he said, should have been installed long ago. The superintendent of the plant, was of the opinion that if the plant is completed by the middle of November, there would be ample time to overhaul the other machinery and get it in shape for taking the load this winter.

The utilities commissioner was not in favor of creating an efficiency guarantee from the companies. The companies were responsible for their machines and if they did not live up to the specifications, the city would have a good suit for damages.

Commissioner Gandy: "If I had had a guarantee from the Allis-Chalmers company, we would have saved $100,000 on the gas producer."

Commissioner Hoffman: "I do not like to hear statements of that kind unless the man making them knows what he is talking about."

Commissioner Gandy: "I can

NATION CELEBRATES KING GEORGE DAY

GOVERNMENT OFFICES AND ALL PUBLIC OFFICES CLOSE, BUT BUSINESS PLACES OPEN

THE DAY IN EDMONTON While the general business of the city has not been suspended in celebration of the birthday of King George, almost all the public offices in the city were closed this morning. The government offices, land office and the courts are all closed today. The retail merchants decided to keep open for the full day, as the rapid succession of statutory holidays within a period of a few weeks threatens to unduly disorganize the business of the city. The city offices are open as usual.

At the special request of King George V. of this date, June 3rd, will be observed throughout his reign as a legal holiday in all the British dominions, as it is the anniversary of the day on which he first saw the light in Marlborough House, on June 3rd, 1894. He was born only a short distance from Norfolk House, St. James Square, where his namesake, King George III, was born in 1728.

The birthday of King George V. was not celebrated last year. The nation was still in mourning for the death of King Edward VII, which occurred on May 6th. The present king was not born direct heir to the throne, being the second son of the then Prince of Wales. His brother, the late Duke of Clarence was 17 months old when Prince George was born.

ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY MEN AT BLACKFALDS FIGHT NEARLY ALL NIGHT FOR POSSESSION OF BOARDING CARS

MOUNTED POLICE CALLED TO SCENE

Discharged Employees Hold the Fort Against New Gang Brought on to the Work—May Be Brought in on a Special Train.

Lacombe, June 3.—Special to the Capital.—A pitched battle in which 180 discharged men were involved, and in which the weapons were clubs, rocks and whatever missiles came handy, gave Blackfalds about the liveliest time in its existence last night, and resulted in a hurry-up call to Lacombe and Edmonton for police protection. Three officers from Edmonton and one from Lacombe are now on the scene and it is quite likely that the whole 180 discharged men, who are the cause of the fight, will be taken to Edmonton on a special train this afternoon.

The battle resulted from the discharging of eighty graders who, claiming that conditions were not satisfactory, refused to work. After vainly endeavoring to make them work yesterday the C. P. R. paid them off and ordered them to leave the boarding cars where they were camped. They refused to take the money or to leave.

CHIEF OF POLICE GEORGE BELL, WHO IS NOW LYING AT THE POINT OF DEATH IN THE RED DEER HOSPITAL.

Meetings are held every Sunday evening at 7:30 and Thursdays at 8 p. m. All interested are welcome.

Red Deer, June 3.—Had it not been for the vigilant care of the officers, Arthur Francis Kelly, the man who is now upon preliminary trial for the alleged attempted murder of Chief of Police George Bell, would in all probability have suffered a speedy death at the hands of the infuriated people of Red Deer, who gathered round the court house when the prisoner was brought in from the exhibition grounds entrance after the spectacular capture, in which the boy scouts played so prominent a part. The police rushed their prisoner through to the court house, where he now lies in one of the cells, and angry gestures and threats of a bloody vengeance followed the accused to his cell. It was probably the nearest approach to a lynching affray that has yet been known in Canada. Bell has been such a popular and sincerely respected citizen that the cowardly attempt upon his life has roused the community to the highest pitch of indignation. Many voices were raised in the big crowd of armed men that gathered in front of the court house, demanding that the man who is charged with the crime be turned over to the citizens that they might with his hands, which might have ended disastrously had not a bystander intervened. The onslaught upon the prisoner took place after he had been placed in the cell. Last evening the fury against the prisoner had somewhat subsided, but the main topics of conversation were Bell's precarious condition and the brilliant work of the Boy Scouts.

Kelly was caught close to the place at which the shooting took place the night before. Early yesterday morning well-organized forces were sent to scour the country, all armed, but while these were scattered over an area extending twenty miles from the city, the Boy Scouts were at work near home, and by the plucky manner in which they surrounded Kelly, have gained for themselves universal admiration.

In the presence of constables of the town police yesterday morning, Arthur Francis Kelly, now on trial for the attempted murder of Chief of Police George Bell, made an admission which may prove his undoing when the evidence is produced in court. It was made shortly after his incarceration in his cell in the court house.

While a number of citizens were gathered in front of the court house, Kelly seemed to be sleeping. W. Barker, scoutmaster on the G. P. R. who accompanied the special train which was run down the line yesterday hoping that the assassin, whoever he might be, would jump from the train in an attempt to escape, was driven to exasperation by the horrible indifference of Kelly to the fact of the man whom he is accused of shooting. Rushing to the cell he yelled to the prisoner, "Why did you shoot George Bell?"

"I did not think it was George," was the reply, and Kelly went on to say that he had never intended to inflict such serious injuries. He had shot to obtain money, he said. The interview was cut short, but the evidence of Barker in the court on Monday will form one of the most important contributions to the crown's case.

During the three months that Kelly has spent in the district, Bell has shown the greatest generosity, lending the man money when he was "up against it."

A hat found by the police a few yards from the spot at which the shooting Thursday evening occurred, was shown to Kelly yesterday, and he admitted ownership.

After from these admissions, the prisoner has stoutly protested his innocence and he is putting on a brazen front, and is determined to fight for his freedom to the end.

Kelly Was Seen Making a Mask The latest piece of circumstantial evidence against the accused is a cunningly made black leather mask, with eyebrows cut, and designed to hide from the view the whole of the wearer's features, found by the Red Deer scouts among the brush in the neighborhood in which the crime was committed. The mask together with the statements of certain citizens that they saw Kelly making a mask will be part of the evidence against Kelly when the preliminary trial is resumed on Monday morning before Magistrates Wallace and Miller.

H. B. Gilson, scoutmaster of the Edmonton boy scouts, and vice-principal of the schools, and Constable MacFarlane of the local police, made the discovery.

Bookies Lose Five Million On Sunstar's Derby Victory

TRINIDAD LABOR AGENT WHO DREW LUCKY NUMBER IN CALCUTTA SWEEP CASHES TICKET FOR $350,000—JOTL WSW $150,000.

London, June 3.—J. B. Joel, agent of Sunstar, Derby winner, won $150,000 on the race, but at that he was not the largest winner. Mr. B. Joel, Trinidad agent to engage colonies to Calcutta drew Sunstar in the Calcutta Turf club sweepstakes and won nearly $250,000. The second prize in sweepstakes, $170,000, was won by Mr. A. W. Berry, master of "Warwick" race track, whose salary is $2,000 a year.

WASHOUT CAUSES WRECK NEAR 300

Winnipeg, June 3.—A washout of the Sun line one mile east of Vermilion, near Detroit, Mich., shortly before midnight last night, led to the wrecking of the westbound Winnipeg Express. The train was derailed, coaches caught fire and all life cars were destroyed.

None of these are Canadians. Owing to wire trouble south, details are scanty, the above being handed out by William White, vice-president of the C. P. R.

The particular part of the property which the company proposes to utilize is the most westerly 100 acres of the 240, which lies to the south of the C. P. R. to the north of the G. T. P. and to the east of packing plant. The company hopes and expects to get other enterprises similar to the Grif- fin concern on the ground to the east of where the stock yards will be located. "The only thing we ask," concluded Mr. Blackett, "is that the citizens co-operate with us to make this the stock centre of the northwest."

HOW MISTAKE OCCURRED

When first taken to the hospital on Thursday night, Chief of Police Bell was of opinion that his assailant was Alex. McCreig, a well-known character in Red Deer District. Bell informed his helpers that he thought the voices of the two persons were alike. It was upon the strength of this statement that Constables Barker and the R. N. W. M. P. sent out official warning and instructions to arrest McCreig. The police soon ran up their minds, however, that they were on the wrong trail and although McCreig remained in town and could have been placed under arrest, he has not been in custody in connection with the affair. Kelly's voice and McCreig's are very similar.

BELL FIGHTING FOR LIFE

Red Deer, June 3.—Little chance in the condition of Chief of Police Bell was noted up to 1 o'clock today, and the doctors are entertaining hopes that he may yet make a rally and recover from the effects of the serious bullet wound received in the affray of Thursday night. The splendid fight which the patient has made against death has inspired Dr. Gilson with hope, whereas yesterday all Mr. Bell's medical advisers had almost despaired of saving him. The police chief has remained conscious, suffering terrible pain, but he has shown no signs of weakness. His wife is the only visitor who is allowed to see him.

Meetings are held every Sunday evening at 7:30 and Thursdays at 8 p. m. All interested are welcome.

WITH THE BOY SCOUTS

GOSPEL OF THE TROOPS IN EDMONTON DISTRICT

At the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. detachment on Tuesday, May 30, four new boys took the tenderfoot degree and passed successfully.

Mr. Grob, the scoutmaster, took the troop out for a practice in stacking, tracking, cooking, dispatch running, etc. The morning was a decided success.

There are now three patrols in the troop and it is hoped that there will be another within a few days.

The Beaver patrol, the popular patrol of the Y. M. C. A. troop has decided to change their patrol name to the Wolf patrol on account of the call, the call of the Beaver not being satisfactory. The new wolf call is how-0000.

All Saints Detachment
On Tuesday, May 30, Mr. Livesy took the boys out for a practice in dispatch running. The practice was held in the street and was worked out successfully.

McDougall Troop
The troop meets at McDougall church every Friday at 7.30 p.m. The following have passed the tenderfoot tests and are now enrollees: C. A. Butchart, C. R. Brown, M. Brown,

R. Field, F. Green, S. Smith.
George Parney passed the tests for second class scout.
To following patrol leaders have been appointed: M. Brown, Owl patrol; J. Parney, Beaver patrol; C. A. Parney, Kangaroo patrol. The corporals for these patrols are: Owl, E. J. Weller; Heavers, S. A. Smith; Kangaroo, R. Brown; Beaver, Richard Field.

Meetings Last Night
At the meeting in the Y. M. C. A. life saving practice was held in a quite satisfactory way, four ways being shown. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday.

At McDougall Scoutmaster Hutton gave a lecture on first aid work which was closely followed by the boys. The following are the dates for the meetings of the different patrols: Monday, May 7, the Beavers; Wednesday, May 7, the Owls; Thursday, 8, the Kangaroos. On Friday night at 7.30 o'clock there will be a parade at which all boys should be present in full uniform.

Stimulating practice was held at the St. Andrew's meeting and a number of new things in the way of being knots was taught. A parade will be held on Tuesday evening permitting.

The attendance at the All Saints meeting was somewhat poor, but the night was spent in the usual practice work. Parade on Friday evening.

At the Desk of the Scout Editor

The captives at Red Deer yesterday of a man who was supposed to be a murdered fugitive for his life by the Boy Scouts and cadets of that town is a brilliant example of what boys may do when trained and disciplined. Facing a desperado armed with a revolver and knowing that capture meant his life would have daunted many a man. The boys showed their presence of mind by scattering around him at a safe distance and keeping him there until assistance arrived and the capture effected without loss of life.

If I were asked who had the greatest opportunity of snuffing up a troop, or making it into a model of efficiency, I should unhesitatingly say, the patrol leader. Every scoutmaster will understand what I mean when I say that a good patrol leader is a treasure. A scoutmaster has, indeed, a worrying time of it when he is unfortunate enough to have around him a number of patrol leaders, who are lazy and will not look after their own patrol. The work of the scoutmaster is increased tenfold, and the scouts are more difficult to handle in consequence of the various binges and in difference of the leader. I have heard so much from scoutmasters about their leaders that I felt that a straight talk was necessary. You should be the keenest "on the trail" in your studies for the various badges and in every game you should take a part.

You should have the upper hand of your patrol. Never be overcome by the shubbery lot of a youngster, for discipline is essential. Always be a worker and not a shirker, and then you will not only have the best scouts, but you will come up to the chief scout's idea of what a patrol leader should be. The scoutmaster is the one responsible involved in the position. Take the "side," but have little eye for a boy's mistakes. Make give necessary commands and never attempt to use tact with the scouts. I would say to patrol leaders: You ought never to need telling that your first duty is to obey your scoutmaster and assist him in the good government of the troop, and to see that each lad in your patrol makes satisfactory progress, for it is only by careful watching and training the troop that the ideal is reached.

The above was written by a warrant officer in England and I am sure it will ring as much in the ears of the boys of Canada as to those in the old country. I think that all patrol leaders in Edmonton should be made to read the paragraph out and refer back to it now and again when they feel their ideals slipping away when things have gone wrong and don't look like coming out right.

The scout editor invites scouts, patrol leaders, or scoutmasters to bring him any line of interest about the movements of the scouts for the Saturday scout page.

Baden Powell's Letter to the Boys

To Every Canadian Boy:

Baden Powell's letter to Canadian boys is well known to all scouts, but it bears repetition. Perhaps some who are not scouts would like to read it. In the South African war, I had in my force an officer who could follow a track, hide, watch and report an enemy, and was as brave and hardy as anyone could wish. But he had no training—he could not obey orders.

One day we were lying in ambush to surprise a force of Boers who were coming along. My orders were that everyone was to be low and not stir out of the hiding place. But this young scout thought he knew best what was wanted and slipped away from the column to do a bit of scouting on his own account. Shortly after shots were heard. He had not a Boer scout; they had fired at each other. The Boer was killed and our scout mortally wounded. Other Boer scouts hearing the shots came up and finding a British scout, they guessed that there must be more of us in the neighborhood, so they searched the country more carefully and discovered our ambush in time to warn their main body. No, I have no use for a fellow who cannot obey orders, even though he be a good scout in other ways.

From what I have seen of you Canadian boys, I have a great admiration for you. You are already good scouts in the woods, but to be perfectly reliable you must also be sure that you are disciplined and can obey orders, however distasteful they may be, without any hesitation and cheerfully.

Canada can be a very big nation in a few years if each of you determines to do his bit towards making it so. A nation is not made merely by its territory or wealth; it is made by its men. If they are men of grit and energy who work together like a football team each in his place and each playing the game in obedience to the orders of the captain, they will win; they will make it a great nation. If they only loaf through the game each in his own way it is not likely that this country will succeed against others.

So, play up, Canadian lads! "Play the game." Sink your own personal comfort, think of your country and words have, each one of you to be an all-round soldier who can be relied upon in a tight corner to stick it out and obey orders.

Your friend,
ROBERT BADEN-POWELL.

PLENTY OF MONEY TO BRING THE FOLKS

HOME REUNION ASSOCIATION HAS NOVEL SCHEME TO UNITE
FAMILIES OF BRITISH WORKMEN

The committee appointed some weeks ago to arrange for establishing an Edmonton branch of the Imperial Home Reunion association an organization to aid British workmen who have positions in Canada to bring their families to this country, met three of the members of the Winnipeg business men's trip in the board of trade rooms last night and discussed matters pertaining to the society with them.

The organization has been working in Winnipeg with marked success during the past six months and at the meeting last night its aims and objects and the manner of carrying on the movement were explained, and also by C. F. Roland and A. Simmers. The members of the Edmonton committee who were present were R. J. Munn, W. H. Clark, F. M. Morgan, S. Gandy, A. W. Gulland and P. T. Fisher. As a result of the meeting steps will be taken to complete the organization of the association here and place it on a working basis as early a date as possible.

The visitors from Winnipeg said that since the organization was established in the prairie city six months ago, 141 wives of workmen employed in Winnipeg have been brought to Canada to join their husbands. Accompanying these were 493 children. This has been accomplished without a cent of expense on the part of the members of the organization.

The undertaking was financed by Winnipeg banks, each member of the society placing his name to a guarantee for $250, making the total amount guaranteed $200,000. Every man who wanted assistance to bring out his family made formal application to the society. Before any money was advanced his case was investigated thoroughly. The amount of his daily or weekly earnings was ascertained as well as his habits of living and general reliability. If the result of the investigation was satisfactory the required amount was borrowed from the bank on the guarantee of the business men who formed the society. The applicant was given the use of the money at the rate of interest charged the business men by the banks. The family was brought out and all the members reunited, the husband or father paying back the amount borrowed, in instalments.

It was pointed out that from a business standpoint one of the chief advantages gained by assisting these men is that with their families living in Canada all their money is placed in circulation in the city in which they reside, whereas when the family is separated, anywhere from $20 to $50 per month is sent out of the country to support the members who are still in Great Britain.

Another great advantage is that when his family is with him a man becomes a more stable citizen whereas if he has no ties in any particular community he is apt to drift here and there over the country.

The members of the organization in Winnipeg have not been called upon as yet to pay any money out of their own pockets and the representatives stated last evening that there was no prospect of their having to do so.

Trade of an Empire Falls Into Edmonton Hands

A circumstance which the mercantile interests of Edmonton will do well to keep in mind is the fact that with the completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific to Tete Juan Cache the trade of that immense territory known as Central British Columbia, of which Fort George is the logical centre and distributing point, will fall into the hands of Edmonton merchants and wholesale houses.

The Fort George country at the present time is served by road from Ashcroft in winter and by steamers on the Fraser in the summer. Freight charges in either case are very heavy as the distance is great, although the road is good, and navigation on the river is precarious, to say the least.

Navigation on the Upper Fraser to Tete Juan Cache is not being carried on as a commercial enterprise at the present time, but proof that it is feasible is furnished by the fact that the steamer "Fort Fraser" made the trip last summer without accident, and rafting down the upper river would furnish a much cheaper and safer freight than steamboating up the Fraser from the main line of the C. P. R.

The trade of the district is due to become immensely valuable. The country is an empire in extent and its resources are incalculable. A wealth of timber and mineral await only the arrival of the railway to be developed on an enormous scale. For certain classes of farming the country is second to none and the gold resources of the Caribou country alone, when these can be operated by hydraulic and dredging, are certain to produce an enormous trade.

That the coast merchants recognize the menace to their supremacy is made clearly evident by the fact that Vancouver wholesalers and the board of trade of the Terminal City are clamoring to have the McBride government guarantee the bonds of a railway up the Fraser, giving Vancouver direct connection with Central British Columbia.

That such a road will sooner or later be built goes without saying, that the Vancouver merchants will not rest satisfied until they have access to this trade is guaranteed by their activity in pursuing other lines of trade in other parts of the country.

It will be several months yet, possibly late in the fall, before the G. T. P. reaches Tete Juan Cache. And it will undoubtedly be more than a year before it finally reaches Fort George. But between the time the road reaches the Cache and the time when Vancouver finally gets a railway connection up the Fraser it behooves the Edmonton merchants to get very busy. The time for Edmonton merchants to entrench themselves is when there can be no rivals. With two, three or five years the start of the Coast merchants Edmonton should be able to hold the trade against all comers for all time.

Negro Menace Dispelled by Returns

Another mythical menace to the progress of the Edmonton district is dispelled by the month's returns from the immigration hall for May.

It may be taken for granted that the immigration hall is the clearing house for settlers for the district, and the average of arrivals there is a fairly accurate criterion by which to judge the arrivals of all kinds for the whole district.

Of the 432 persons who registered at the immigration hall during the month of May, only four were negroes.

When the first migration of negroes to Alberta took place newspapers in other centres, especially Calgary, took advantage of the circumstance to spread the belief that the Edmonton district was being inundated with a flood of blacks.

The figures for the month of May are a pretty complete answer to prove that there never was any real danger of any great number of negroes coming from the languorous climate of the Southern States to become permanent residents of a country such as Alberta, where the climatic conditions exist to which they are altogether unsuited by race and experience.

Had the board of trade made a little less noise about the negro influx it probably never would have been heard of after the first negroes came to Alberta while the snow was on the ground and the mercury was still touching the low marks on the thermometer.

Stockyards as Private Enterprise

Following the refusal of the ratepayers to take up the stockyards proposition, comes the announcement that a company, consisting of a few people who undertook to sell the property to the city, have incorporated and propose to install stockyards as a private enterprise. Whatever may be said of the merits of the deal as presented to the ratepayers, it is a self-evident fact that Edmonton must have a stockyards, and few will deny that it would be better all around if the institution were retained in the hands of the city.

The fact that private enterprise takes hold at once to carry out the project at least is a demonstration of the faith of the men who are backing the scheme and relieves the project which was voted down of the suggestion that they were willing to unload an enterprise on the city which they would not undertake themselves.

JUST PARAGRAPHS

Calgary streets are narrow that auto owners are not allowed to leave their benzine buggies at the curb lest they stop the trolley cars. This shows why a narrow gauge conception on the part of its founders costs a city in the finish.

Frank Oliver is coming west to find out if the people are in favor of reciprocity. He might also ask if they are in favor of fine weather and good crops. One answer would do for all.

BITULITHIC COMPANY GETS S'CONA PAVING CONTRACT

PRICE $2.05 AGAINST $2.25 OF TWO YEARS AGO—RISE IN MATERIALS RESPONSIBLE—WATER TAX UP AGAIN IN COUNCIL.

Strathcona, June 2.—For the third time the Bitulithic and Contracting Co. have secured the city's paving work. At the adjourned meeting of the council last night it was decided unanimously, upon the recommendation of the public works committee, to accept the tender of this firm for the laying of several blocks of pavement here this summer at $2.05 per square yard. The price is 5 per cent cheaper than that paid the same company last year and this despite the fact that the cost of the material are said to be considerably dearer. Two years ago the price paid was $2.25 per square yard. Mr. D. J. Sloan, representative of the Bitulithic company who was present, informed council that his firm would be ready to commence work at any time upon the paving.

With the provision that the required bonds be furnished, the contract for constructing the plank sidewalks this season was awarded to Mr. A. G. Beaton, his tender being 20 cent for foot walks and 42c. for 6 foot walks.

The Hospital Agreement
 The proposition on the hospital agreement did not materialize. The list of some fourteen clauses in this document, which had been revised by the council at the Tuesday session, were returned with the approval of the University executive and in consequence of there being no further change the necessary by-law was set down for its third reading at the next regular meeting. It was arranged that the list for the hospital on the University grounds should be selected by the council on Monday.

It was decided that a court of revision on the year's assessment shall be held by the council on Wednesday, June 14th.

An Evening of Quizzes
 When word of quizzes was revealed there developed a very general discussion in which queries regarding various phases of civic work and conditions fairly tumbled over each other in the rush of ideas. As Mayor Davies expressed it, "The time was favorable for looking into a great number of matters that council found no time to deal with in the press of business at the regular meeting."

From a question of Ad. Longhlin's regarding the rights of the G. P. U. in city streets the discussion shifted to objections which this city has against the company and upon the advice of the solicitor it was decided that a list of the points in dispute be prepared for the hearing of the railway commission when the siting is held in Edmonton.

Waterworks Taxation Again
 For the first time this year the question of water taxation on waterworks was brought up although it has been expected many times before. Some months ago, the tax on waterworks was 10 c. per cubic foot. At the meeting of Ad. Rankin in open letters being criticised the system of taxation in the city, the council was asked to reduce the rate to 20 c. per cubic foot.

"I want to know, Mr. Foster," said Ad. Vasey to the assessor, "if all the water lines now down are fixed or heard a street runner to the effect that about four miles of the system are paying for the whole fifteen miles of mains."

The man who made that statement didn't know what he was talking about.

GRADERS ENGAGE IN PITCHED BATTLE
 The cars. About 100 new graders were shipped in from Edmonton by the C. P. R. yesterday afternoon and set to work.

The discharged men threatened violence if they started operations, but the work proceeded until evening. When the newly employed men went to the cars for the night the ex-employees, who still had no possession, looking the doors, refused to allow them in. The new men then attacked the cars with stones and loaves which they used as battering rams to break down the doors.

The men inside hurled missiles of divers kinds—everything from frying pans to scalding hot water—through the windows, severely burning a number of the attacking party. When the doors were broken down, the hand fight took place, both sides using clubs and other weapons. Many of the men received scalp wounds, but there were no dangerous injuries. The battle ended about 11 o'clock, the attacking party retreating to the bush a hundred yards away and camping there for the night.

As soon as the trouble arose, the officials in charge of the work sent to the Mounted Police at Lacanor for assistance, but the one policeman who was there was unable to do very much with the situation at the Black Falls cut-off on the C.P.R. The situation has grown dangerous. The men appear to be determined to hold out against the efforts of the four mounted police who arrived this morning from Edmonton.

Hurry-up Call for Policemen.
 Lacanor, June 2.—A hurry-up call for a score of mounted policemen was sent to Calgary this morning to cope with the situation at the Black Falls cut-off on the C.P.R. The situation has grown dangerous. The men appear to be determined to hold out against the efforts of the four mounted police who arrived this morning from Edmonton.

For the first eighteen years of his life Prince George was the inseparable companion of his brother; and probably there have rarely been two brothers that were attached to each other more than these two. There is no doubt that the quick liveliness of Prince George acted as a constant and welcome stimulus both in work and play hours to the more sympathetic temperance of his brother, while the brother's quick steadiness often served as a counterpoise to the younger's impulsive decisiveness.

The brothers entered the navy together as cadets on June 5th, 1877. Prince Edward being within three days of the maximum age limit for entering the cadet corps and Prince George having passed the minimum limit by only two days. The latter was probably the youngest cadet that ever joined the Britannia.

Two years were spent on board the training ship under command of Captain Fairfax at Dartmouth. Life on board ship suited the young princes but the general opinion that the vessel's development of their minds and bodies. While there, Prince George had a part in the most famous and pulled in more than one victorious crew of cables.

The Britannia was commissioned on July 15th, 1879 and in the two years that followed the two princes made a three years' voyage around the globe. Both were rated as midshipmen on their birthday, January 8th, 1880. For the greater part of the time the Britannia was under the command of Admiral Earl of Clarendon, which consisted in addition of the Inconstant, the Tormentor, the Cleopatra and the Cleopatra.

After returning to England at the beginning of August, 1882, the two princes accompanied by a naval instructor and a French master went to Lausanne, Switzerland where they resided for six months until May 1883, when Prince George was appointed midshipman in the Canada, which was then commissioned for service on the North American and West Indian station. Besides visiting many other places in the Dominion and North America the young prince visited Montreal and Ottawa, where he was received by General Governor Lord Lorne and Princess Louise.

Prince George was subsequently made a senior midshipman in the service and when he reached the required age of 19 years he presented himself for his examination as sub-lieutenant. He passed with a first class in seamanship and on some home he went to the naval college at Greenwich for further instruction. The young prince was promoted to a lieutenant's rank on October 8th, 1885.

At the end of three years of very successful service in the Mediterranean, which had been full of much instructive discipline for him, Prince George returned to England and volunteered for another course of training on board the Excellent at Portsmouth. Having undergone the usual course of training in 1889 he was appointed to the Northumberland the flag ship of the Channel Squadron, under the command of Vice-Admiral Baird. In 1890 he visited the United States and Canada and opened the industrial exposition in Jamaica as the personal representative of the Queen. He was promoted to the rank of commander after his return to England in 1891. He became apparent to the throne in the fall of 1891 when his brother died of pneumonia.

Prince George married Princess Victoria Mary of Teck, who has been betrothed to his elder brother on July 29th, 1893.

On becoming heir apparent to the throne he was forced to abandon his naval career and devote his time to study of state matters. To regretted the necessity of abandoning his life at sea, but it became imperative that he should prepare himself for his future position. He was enrolled as Duke of York in the house of lords in 1892 and a few months later was made rear admiral of the British navy.

He became Duke of Cornwall after the death of Queen Victoria and was made admiral in the navy and colonel in chief of the marine forces. In the same year, Prince George with his consort made a tour of the English colonies in the Ophir visiting Australia, India and Canada. In 1892 he visited Africa to represent King Edward at the celebration of the birthday of the German emperor. In 1904 with the Princess he visited Emperor Francis Joseph in Vienna and in October the Prince and Princess left England on a six months' visit to India. In 1908 he visited Canada and took part in the celebration at Quebec.

He succeeded to the throne of Great Britain upon the death of his father on May 6th of last year, under the name of George V. King George V. was never fond of public functions but preferred the quiet country life in the circle of his family. His tendency to showing itself in a number of changes that have been effected in court circles since his accession to the throne. Of his family five sons and one daughter, Prince Edward is the eldest and the present heir apparent to the throne. He was born June 23rd, 1894.

COLLINS TO BE HERE FOR OPENING DAY

JOHN COLLINS GETS TRANSPORTATION FROM WASHINGTON AND WILL JOIN ESKIMOS 12th

Yesterday John Collins wired from Washington, D. C., to Secretary of the Ball Club Dewar asking for transportation. It was sent and Mr. Collins will be in Edmonton before the team returns. He will be available for the opening game. Collins has been picked for the University of Washington this spring and should be in the ship as soon as he arrives here.

Skilman is probably out of the game for the rest of the season and Hardy has not reported. Mills and Luss have had ankles and other divers injuries may be counted among the players of the Edmonton team. They win.

Pitcher Dickenson will join the team tomorrow and should be a strong man on the team.

DECOURSEY AND MORIARTY IN FIFTEEN ROUND SCRAP TONIGHT

THE FIGHT WILL TAKE PLACE IN THE ODD FELLOWS HALL TONIGHT—BOTH THE MEN ARE IN SPLENDID CONDITION AND THE BOUT SHOULD BE A FAST ONE—MORIARTY IS CHAMPION OF THE BRITISH NAVY AND DECOURSEY IS AMERICAN BOXER FROM LOS ANGELES WITH NATIONAL REPUTATION

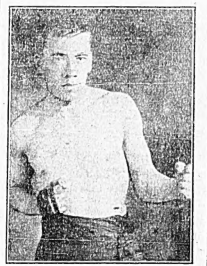

BILLY DECOURSEY
The Los Angeles man who fights Moriarty tonight

The big scrap of the month will come off tonight in the Oddfellows hall when Decoursey and Moriarty meet in a fifteen round mill. The fight promises to be something bigger than usual.

Moriarty has been training hard for several weeks and is in fine shape so that he ought to give the old champion a hard go. The sailor is undoubtedly a fast man and a hard one with a good kick in his arms. Edmonton fans have been given no opportunity to size him up beyond the preliminary which he fought at the Ryan-Decoursey bout and in that he did not have a chance to show what he could do. The fact that he offered to take on the winner of that bout indicates that he has confidence that he can stand a hard pace and in making it a fifteen round affair he must be sure he can stand a hard fight.

Decoursey of course, has a reputation and his fight with Ryan showed that he is in good shape. Decoursey is one of the cleverest boxers in the game and has a kick in his arms that will keep Moriarty going to escape.

A couple of fast preliminaries have been arranged for the evening four and six rounds being the limit so that a good evening will be in order.

BUSH LEAGUE GAME PLAYED AT WINNIPEG

CALGARY WON BY A SCORE OF NINE TO ONE BUT WINNIPEG PLAYED POOR BALL

Winnipeg, June 2.—The Maroons played like bush leaguers in the field today and Calgary had a cinch, running off with the second game of the series by the count of 9 to 1. The visitors did not hit the local heavier very hard, but they did not have to do so, as the home boys tossed the game away by fielding in a poor manner, seven errors being chalked up against them of which six figured in the scoring. Standages twirled dandy ball and held the Winnipeg team safe all the time, a home run in the ninth innings being the only tally made off his delivery. There were few features, the contest being lifeless throughout as with good fielding by the Maroons it would have been a squibby game.

LONDON TIMES WAVES OLD FLAG AT LAURIER

SAYS CANADIAN PREMIER'S POLICY WOULD INVOLVE DISRUPTION OF BRITISH EMPIRE.

London, June 3 (G. A. P.).—The London newspapers are taking active interest in the discussion of the imperial conference of the declaration of London, some being favorable and some opposed to the stand taken up by the representatives of the Dominions in the matter. The Times affirms that if the speech delivered by Sir Wilfrid Laurier regarding the ratification of the declaration were carried to its logical conclusion it would involve a complete rupture of the connection of the tie between Canada and the Empire. So long as Canada flies the British flag just so long will she be regarded by foreign powers as part of the empire and no resolutions can effect this disjunction, short of a vote by the Canadian parliament declaring Canada independent, a state of things which Premier Laurier himself would be first to resist.

The Daily News also dealing with the attitude taken by Canada's premier, regarding the declaration spoke of his deprecating the sharing of the imperial government with the dominions of its foreign policy and said that the joint control mentioned by Sir Wilfrid might lead to divided councils on the matter and would certainly commit to any resulting war any dominion which had been consulted. Here as issues would immediately arise, points out the news, which would immediately arise, points out Here a situation would immediately conflict with the autonomy of the dominions. The London Express opposing the ratification of the declaration says it strikes a blow at national and imperial security and that there will be shaking in the tremendous forces arrayed in opposition to its ratification. The Morning Post remarks that as Premier Laurier appears to regard arbitration as a means by which safety to Canada might be assured without militarism, it is easy to understand by the foreign secretary's statement is well calculated to secure the addition of Canada to the declaration. The Post also asserts that Sir Wilfrid prefers the present position of freedom so that when Britain is at war, Canada might give her as much or as little help as she pleased or, in fact, stand out altogether if she saw fit. Unhappily, however, foreign powers maintain the right to treat the whole empire as belittled if it suits their purpose with little or no regard to the ships or commerce of Canada except for capture or molestation.

MODEL COAL MINE EXHIBITION FEATURE

BUSH MINE CO. TO INSTAL COMPLETE PLANT ON THE FAIR GROUNDS THIS YEAR

The application for space for the coal company's exhibit was received by Secretary Harrison this morning.

Practically all the space in the manufacturers' building has been applied for, some 50 or 60 feet alone remaining to be taken up. The morning applications were received from the Alberta Mining Co., who ask for 15 feet, from the Bradburn Steamship Co., who ask to be allotted a frontage of 20 feet for an exhibit of office furniture and appliances, and from Hevillon Bros., who require 15 feet.
